9. All Cattle must be in place Thursday at 9 AM and stay until 6 PM Sunday (unless otherwise noted).
10. No distinction shall be made between polled and horned cattle.
11. Blankets must be removed by 9:30 AM daily.
12. First bedding will be furnished by the fair. (Sheep: see department rules). If exhibitors desire extra bedding, they must provide their own.
13. Each exhibitor will be entitled to free passage with one assistant.

14. Judging will occur as scheduled and continue until completed. Judges are instructed to award premiums only on high grade animals of good breeding and type. Decisions of the judges are final.
15. The fair reserves the right to accept or reject any entry made. The premium list having the approval of the Board of Trustees, further changes or awards will not be made without approval. The fair management further reserves the right to interpret any rule or statement made in these regulations.
16. All animals may enter as many classes as it is eligible for according to class and age.
17. Premiums and awards will be paid by the fair as soon after the close of the fair as possible.
18. OVAS will, under no circumstances, be liable or responsible for any losses, injuries or damages sustained to or by any owner, owner's agent, employees, and/or livestock entered in any class or while participating in such class, or while on the grounds. All risks or loss, injury, damage or destruction to property and/or livestock are assumed in full by such owners, their agents, and employees whether cause by active or passive negligence, condition of the premises or any other reason or cause whatsoever. All owners by their entries do unreservedly and without exception agree to hold the Ossipee Valley Agricultural Society harmless from any loss, costs or damage caused by them arising from any occurrence in which they or their property or animals may be involved while on the premises of the Ossipee Valley Agricultural Society.
19. Cooking and smoking are prohibited in the buildings or tents.
20. No interference with any judge, State Official or Fair Official will be allowed when these people are discharging their duties. Abusive language by exhibitors shall make them liable to be suspended from the privileges of the Ossipee Valley Fair by the Livestock Superintendent and forfeit all prize money. This will be enforced with regard to 4-H and adult exhibitors alike.
21. Purebred Animals: All livestock entered as purebred must have at time of entry, or upon request of proper officials, the registration certificate for each animal issued by the appropriate breed registry in the owner's name. In compliance with State Law, no premiums will be paid on grade males. Young stock with registration pending must be shown to be registerable.
22. Exhibitors are requested to participate in the Grande Parade.
23. In the event that the Finance Committee finds that unusual circumstances limit the receipts of the fair so as to jeopardize the future of the fair if premiums are paid in full, then that Committee is authorized to reduce all premiums offered by the fair by whatever percentage it considers necessary for the protection of the fair. Such reduction shall apply equally to all premiums, but in no event shall be more than 50%.
24. In the event that the entire fair and/or agricultural competitions must be cancelled by the Society or the Department of Agriculture for good cause, the Ossipee Valley Agricultural Society will not be liable for losses incurred by exhibitors.
